

BSSCII: Update on Skin Diseases in Immunocompromised Patients

Date: Fri 18 May 2018

Time: 09:30 - 17:00

Venue: BAD House, London

	Topic	Speaker
09:00 – 09:30	Registration & Coffee/Tea
09:30 – 09:55	Primary prevention in skin cancer management	Mary Wain
09:55 – 10:25	Weird & wacky tumours in the immunosuppressed	Ferina Ismail
10:25 – 10:50	Secondary prevention of skin cancers	Charlotte Proby
10:50 – 11:20 BREAK
11:20 – 11:50	Top Skin Diseases in HIV	David Paige
11:50 – 12:20	Clinical features and Treatment of Graft versus Host Disease	Tanya Basu
12:20 – 12:50	Top 10 Papers in last 5 years	Catherine Harwood
12:50 – 13:50 LUNCH
13:50 – 14:20	Surgical Pearls in immunocompromised patients	Conal Perrett
14:20 – 14:50	Challenges in viral diagnosis and management – simplex and complex	Mark Zuckerman
14:50 - 15:10 MINI-BREAK
15:10 – 16:00	Fungal and Bacterial Infections in immunosuppressed patients	Rachel Morris-Jones
16:00 – 16:30	Registrar cases
16:00 – 16:05	Maintain a high level of suspicion for Kaposi Sarcoma in organ transplant recipients of Sub-Saharan African origin. Jonathan Kentley, Clinical Fellow RLH, London
16:05 – 16:10	An unusual presentation of extensive and progressive Kaposi's sarcoma in a renal transplant patient. Siobhan Muthiah, ST6 Royal Victoria Infirmary, Newcastle Upon Tyne
16:10 – 16:15	Multiple eruptive dermatofibroma associated with HIV. Evdoxia Panou, Clinical fellow UCLH, London
16:15 – 16:20	A case of multiple BRAF-Inhibitor induced Squamoproliferative lesions: pure paradoxical reactivation or cutaneous cooperation with immunosuppressive viral oncoproteins? Matthew Wynne, Clinical research fellow, St Johns Institute, London
16:20 – 16:25	Deep Trichophyton rubrum infection of the posterior thoracic wall in a transplant patient – A peculiar case of fungal dimorphism. Tanveer Chohan, Clinical Fellow, Norwich Hospital
16:25 – 16:40	Clinical Cases Quiz	Abha Gulati
16:40 – 17:50	Closing remarks & Questions	